ORIENTATION WEEK 2025-2026: “UNLOCK YOUR GOLDEN 5-STAR CAREER PATHWAY”

Pegasus International College recently welcomed new students of courses such as the Advanced Diploma in Cooking Techniques and Certificate in Cookery and Patisserie programmes with a super-charged dynamic Orientation Week, themed “Unlock Your GOLDEN 5-STAR Career Pathway!”

Orientation Week was designed to ready students with the right mindset and professional attitude required of future master chefs in the world of F&B and Hospitality. Students were introduced to essential topics - growth mindset, professional appearance and the integration of technology and AI in learning.

[Hanoi Campus] A highlight of the week was a field trip to InterContinental Hanoi Landmark 72, where students were able to observe professional hotel operations and gain a deeper understanding of a 5-star working environment—nurturing their motivation and determination to pursue excellence in their culinary careers. [Danang Campus] Students participated in team-building activities to connect with each other in their new exciting chapter at Pegasus. Additionally, they participated in fire safety drills to enhance knowledge of safety procedures and emergency response protocols applicable both within the college and workplace premises.

OPEN DAY 2025 @ PEGASUS INTERNATIONAL COLLEGE – “HOSPITALITY, CULINARY ARTS & CHEF TRAINING | HANDS-ON LEARNING – SOLID SKILLS”

Continuing its mission to inspire and guide young people on their career paths, Pegasus International College successfully hosted Open Day 2025 in July. This event was part of the College's well-regarded career orientation series, attracting a large number of students and parents interested in Tourism and Hospitality, especially Culinary Arts.

Under the theme “Hands-on Learning - Solid Skills”, participants engaged in practicals such as bartending, hotel, and restaurant service in a realistic, internationally standardised training environment. These immersive activities provided valuable insights into the hospitality and culinary industries, while also helping students explore future career options and discover study pathways and scholarship opportunities available at Pegasus.

Participants also had the chance to:

- Explore state-of-the-art facilities and modern equipment implemented by KinderWorld International Group (Singapore).
- Learn about a wide range of training programmes, career development paths and both local and international job prospects.
- Meet professional instructors and current alumni, gaining firsthand experience of Pegasus's dynamic, hands-on learning environment.

With a strong focus on practical training and industry relevance, Pegasus International College continues to affirm its position as a leading institution in upskilling professionals in hospitality and culinary sectors in Vietnam and beyond.

VTOSHM 19 HOTEL MANAGEMENT LEARNERS EXPLORE REAL-WORLD OPERATIONS AT MAY DE VILLE HOTEL

As part of the VTOS-Standard Hotel Management Programme, students from class VTOSHM 19 conducted a field study at May De Ville Crown Hotel, a boutique property located in the heart of Hanoi.

With its elegant design and emphasis on high-quality service, the hotel aligns closely with the business models within the VTOS curriculum. Students gained important insights into hotel operations, service standards and departmental management practices, deepening their understanding of how VTOS principles are applied in real-world settings.

This hands-on experience further equips learners with practical knowledge and professional perspectives essential for their future hotel management careers.

PEGASUS CULINARY SUMMER CAMP 2025: “A TASTE OF THE WORLD – BIG DISHES MADE WITH LITTLE HANDS”

In summer, we successfully hosted three consecutive Culinary Summer Camps, welcoming hundreds of young participants to explore the exciting world of international cuisine. The programme provided a fun, hands-on environment for children to develop essential life skills, ignite their passion for cooking and express creativity in professional kitchens.

From day one, wide-eyed curiosity filled the room as “little hands” began crafting “big dishes.” A highlight of the camp was the Final Project, where young chefs proudly prepared and served delicious meals to their parents—a heartwarming culmination marked by hugs, appreciation and proud smiles. It was truly a summer to remember. We look forward to welcoming our young chefs back next year for more culinary adventures with Pegasus!

DANANG MARRIOTT RESORT & SPA: SPECIALISED ENGLISH TRAINING TO ENHANCE SERVICE QUALITY AND PROFESSIONALISM

On August 19, Pegasus successfully conducted a specialized English training course in hospitality for the staff of Danang Marriott Resort & Spa.

The course focused on practical English communication skills for the hotel's resort environment. Participants were commended for their amazing progress and positive learning attitudes, once again reaffirming the effectiveness of the Training Programme.

ROYGENT PARKS HANOI UPSKILLED STAFF WITH “PROFESSIONAL CUSTOMER SERVICE” TRAINING PROGRAMME @ PEGASUS INTERNATIONAL COLLEGE

Professional customer service is more than just guest interaction — it reflects a hotel's core values, brand and service culture philosophy. We designed a tailor-made training course inspired by the Japanese philosophy of Omotenashi – the art of wholehearted hospitality, in collaboration with Roygent Parks Hanoi, a premium hotel and serviced apartment complex developed and operated by Daiwa House Group and Taisei Corporation from Japan.

The programme combined theoretical knowledge with hands-on practice and self-reflection, delivered across three intensive sessions. Almost 100 employees from Roygent Parks Hanoi enhanced their customer service skills, elevated their service mindset and learned how to deliver authentic, thoughtful hospitality in every guest experience.
